2. Action Taken Report- Based on the Feedback Received from Teachers 2018-2019

- Both teachers and students have been visiting library, because open access library system is made available to both.
- The adequate research books and journals have been increased in the Central Library.
- Reading rooms facilities have been arranged in the Central Library for both students and teachers.
- Along with the teaching-learning process, the administration encourages teachers to do research work.
- Improvements have been made to the laboratories.
- Needed more teaching-staff for conducting the semester-based courses.
- Syllabus related project work or educational field visits are arranged to give hands-on learning to the students. Through this, students can relate the syllabus and the real situation.
- Efforts have been made to improve infrastructural aspects such as provision of adequate drinking water, cleanliness of toilets, arrangement of services in staff rooms, generators as an alternative during load shedding etc.
- The college has created a list of Mentor-Mentees and implemented the same. The HOD/Coordinators have supervised the work.
- Students Seminars in all Departments have been organized. This year the activity is implemented in all Odd Semesters.
- The wall magazines of respective Departments have been published through a competition manner.
- The IQAC has conducted several meetings to prepare CAS files in both old and new rules.
