2. Action Taken Report- Based on the Feedback Received from Teachers 2019-2020

- The Central Library has a reading room for the students as well as the teachers to keep adequate research books and journals.
- Lesson Plan of all Departments along with the Academic Calendars is prepared by the HOD/Coordinators of the respective department and the Academic Audit has been conducted through the prescribed proforma.
- Introduction of an Add-on program by the Sanskrit Department in this year is appreciable.
- Publication of college Magazine 8th Edition of Āraṇyak has been made.
- College authorities always provide encouragement and support to teachers for improvement in research work.
- Various events are organized by the teachers to educate students about the syllabus and its practical application.
- Programs are organized for the students related to ethics, moral values, gender sensitivity, etc. Besides, several career counseling programs are organized for the guidance of students.
- Syllabus related project work or educational field visits are arranged to give hands-on learning to the students. Through this, students can relate the syllabus and the real situation.
- Efforts have been made to improve infrastructural aspects such as provision of adequate drinking water, cleanliness of toilets, arrangement of services in staff rooms, generators as an alternative during load shedding etc.
