10	About & Outcome	The Department of Sanskrit had organized the State State Level Seminar on काव्येषु नाटकं रम्यं तत्र रम्यं शकुन्तलम् on 15/08/2022 on the occasion of World Sanskrit Day, which falls on fullmoon day in the month of Shraavana according to the Hindu calendar. Sanskrit Day is celebrated to spread awareness, promote and revive the ancient Indian language and culture. The seminar attributes at the rich culture of India. Sanskrit, the most scientific language in the world needs to be protected and propagated. Sanskrit is the oldest, purest and most systematic language in the world. The sacred Vedas are written in this oldest language of the world. Several scientific treatises that were much ahead of their time were written in the same language. Sanskrit is a window to India's grand cultural heritage and must be kept alive so that we may continue in exploring and understanding our civilized roots. It is the mother of almost all Indian languages. It is not only a language but a true identity of India. It is a gift to the entire humanity. The seminar aims to spread awareness about the language and celebrate India's rich culture.
